

PRESS RELEASE

NOUVEAUX CINÉMAS

International Digital Film Festival

The Nouveaux Cinémas Festival comes to New-York !

For the second time ever, the Nouveaux Cinémas Festival will be descending on New York to showcase the crème de la crème of international short film offerings.

Started in Paris in 2005, the Nouveaux Cinémas Festival aims to connect people with high-quality digital filmmaking, in addition to promoting an innovative vision of present-day cinema. The Nouveaux Cinémas Festival is far-reaching and open to all.

Already established in France, Italy and Ukraine, the festival is migrating to New York City for a regular bi-monthly showcase.

Under the umbrella of its sister festival, « Le Jour Le Plus Court », this coming edition will celebrate short movies from France and the rest of the world. Join us for a screening of shorts films and a live concert by VideoVideo in Brooklyn, on Thursday, December 20th, 6:30 PM, at Berry Park, Williamsburg.

Where :
BERRY PARK
4 Berry Street @ N14TH
Brooklyn NY 11211
Subway : L to Bedford ou G to Nassau

When :
Thursday December 20th at 6:30PM

Free Admission

Short Film Program:

Niagara
by Léopold Dewolf

The Sweeties
by Vero Cratzborn

Cross Road
by Scott Bono, Charles-Emmanuel Farkas, Olivier Gros & Benoit Rimet

Crow Feather
by Peter Bunzl

De riz ou d'Arménie
by Hélène Marchal, Samy Barras, Romain Blondele, Céline Seille

Noise
by Przemmyslaw Adamski

My piece of happiness
by Carole Mathieu-Castelli

The Thrust
by François Vogel

Concert :

VideoVideo
<http://videovideo.us/>

More information :
www.nouveaucine.com
<http://www.lejourlepluscourt.com/>

Press Contact :
Emeline ROUVRE
emeline@cinefac.fr